FROM THE CHAIRCAMEL

Hi everybody, me, Feral, here again! Happy Easter. I have put in a good word for you to my friend Easter Bilby. He comes to visit the Flinders Ranges Yellow-footed Rock-wallabies sometimes & he's a great bloke-by.

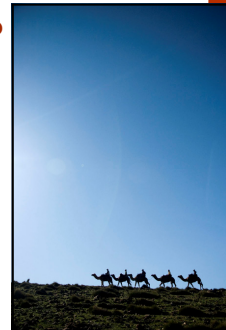

Lots, & lots has been happening around here. My favorite pet, Jannene, went to visit our New Zealand friends at OzTalk, in Auckland. She was really delighted by how many New Zealander's have already been to South Australia & most said it was the state they most wanted to come back to!

My friend, Jack has gone racing! He is at a training camp now & then going to Victoria to compete in the Easter races. Good luck Jack—it's been a while since we have had a racing champion around here. It would be nice to have the excitement of race training back. I loved racing, I could have been a champion too..... but I'm just too lazy!

The days are getting shorter, the evening's cooler—there's no better time to join us for a safari—see you soon?

Feral

“There's Nothing Like Australia” the campaign...

Tourism Australia's new campaign lets Australians invite the world to share their favourite Australian place or experience.

From 15 April until 12 May 2010 Tourism Australia is inviting Australians to upload why they think There's Nothing Like Australia. After all, who knows more about the best that there is to see & do in Australia than Australians?

So, please help Pichi Richi Camel Tours to become one of the most popular & talked about experiences in Australia, AND you have a chance to win a $25 000.00 holiday prize.

Go to www.nothinglikeaustralia.com, upload an image of your favourite camel tour, and in 25 words or less tell the world why there's nothing like a camel tour with Pichi Richi Camel Tours.

If you need images to go with your entry please feel free to take one off of our website media gallery or our Facebook photo album.
